For the Middle States south and west winds, falling barometer, cloudy weather, with light rain, possibly followed for a short time by cooler westerly winds and rising barometer.

THE CANAL. - The Cumberland Alleganian

"The canal way-billed 37 boats vesterday, carrying 4,102 tons of coal, being the second largest shipment for one day this season. Of this amount the Maryland Company shipped 966 tons; American, 804 tons; Consolidation, 670 tons; Borden, 671 tons; New Central, 418 tons; Bleen Avon, 343 tons; and J. P. Agnew & Co., 229 tons.

"There is some dissatisfaction in reference to the rates per ton received on the canal, there being strong suspicions that some of the captains are shipping for seventy cents per ton. As the amount each captain receives is often kept to himself, the truth of the rumor cannot really be ascertained."

The same paper says editorially :-"The coal companies here do not appear to be encouraged much over the resumption of business, and seem to allow the trade to languish, for the reason that they cannot enter into competition with the Penusylvania coals, and that while they entered into contracts in the spring at prices so low as to permit of no margin, they are now compelled to fill them at advanced rates. The reduction of to'ls on the Carter, Mrs Fannio canal is not an offset to the increased pay of boatmen and miners, and while they were working to keep their custom until better times, the increased prices will enforce a loss. The tem-porary advance when the "strike" occurred Grady, Mark lasted only until shipments began, when prices Green, Miss Martha fell to the former standard. And even had an advance been maintained the profits on future orders would not cover the loss entailed by advanced wages and cost of shipment.

The News says:-"President Gorman, who went east last even ing, was yesterday notified that one of the com panies would insist upon enforcing its contracts for freights made last spring at a lower rate than that noted above. He replied that he would look into the case and endeavor to have the matter adjusted."

The first two boats loaded since the strike for this port arrived here to day about noon. They were consigned to the American Coal

POLICE ITEMS .- William Davis, William Day and William Elzie, all colored, for stealing a shirt from Harry Carter, were dismissed on payment of costs.

Roxanna Roberson, Jennie Lucas and Julia Carter, all colored, were fined, and Carter, in default of payment, was sent to the workhouse. Sarah Kenney, a colored damsel from Washington, for abusing and threatening Lucy Williams, also colored, was made to pay costs, and, as the evidence showed that she was a vagrant, she was ordered to leave town at once.

CLEARING THE SIDEWALKS .- Much complaint has been made at police headquarters of the violation of the city ordinance forbidding the rolling of wheelbarrows upon the sidewalks. It is said that in many cases persons are crowded off the walk by barrows loaded with slop and rubbisb. The police have been instructed to arrest those caught violating the law in future. Attention will also be paid to the servant girls who blockade the sidewalks with baby carriages two and three abreast, and they will be required to go in single file.

QUEER FISH .- On the last trip of the steamer Charlotte Vanderbilt to Point Lookout, Mr. George Laycock, the mate, caught a new and ourious kind of fish while crabbing at the wharf there. The fish, which is flat, had a beak or protuberance on the head, shaped like a pipe stem, from which it spouted water. It died on the trip up, but has been sent to the Smithsonian Institute, where it will be pre-

THE VANDERBILT EXCURSIONS. - The regular Friday night excursion of the steamer Charlotte Vanderbilt, last night, was largely attended, and a most enjoyable time had by all. The boat stopped at Marshall Hall, where an hour was spent by the young people in the mazy dance, while the older ones strolled about the beautiful grounds. The party reached home, upon the return, shortly before eleven o'clock, all much pleased with their evening's trip.

SOL SMITH RUSSELL .- As will be seen by the advertisement clsewhere, Sol Smith Russell's troupe of musical artists will appear in this city on September 31. LEBANON FARMERS' CLUB. - A large meeting of the Lebanon Farmers' Club was held at Mason's Hill on Thursday evening. There was a very fine exhibition of fruits, and several premiums were awarded. Speeches were made by Gen. W. H. F. Lee, Dr. J. J. Moran and others. The meeting was a very successful and most enjoyable one.

DANGEROUS.-Persons who have occasion to cross Hunting Creek Bridge complain very much, and justly too, of the practice indulged in by some of the anglers who frequent the bridge, of pulling the planks out of place and bridge, of pulling the planks out of place and leaving them so, to the greatrisk and danger of horses and persons crossing over, especially at

THE WEATHER .- There was a heavy shower of rain shortly before cleven c'clock last night, which only lasted, however, a short time, after which the moon shone brightly. To-day the weather has been warm, with some light fleecy clouds to break the force of the sun's rays.

THE ROBERT PORTNER .- A dispatch to the New York Herald says that the schooner Robert Portner, of this city, at Portland for New York, was run into on the 23d by the schooner Daniel Goss, which was bound to Machias, and had her jibboom broken off.

It was determined to hold the fair on Wednesday and Thursday, September 26th and 27th, in the Exchange rooms, and that the cattle show be held in the lot formerly occupied by John Leatherland, on King street, near Lee. The price of admission was fixed at twenty-five cents, or six tickets for one dollar. A committee of ladies was also present and made preparations for the proper decoration of the hall. The committee will meet again next Saturday.

FATAL ACCIDENT,-Mr. Lewis Douobue, a farmer residing near Leesburg, while returning from that town to his home in a buggy, yesterday afternoon, was drowned while attempting to ford Tuscarora creek. His horse, which was also drowned, was found toward night some distance down the stream, but Mr. Donohue's body had not been recovered when the train Bull being at Fort Peck is contradicted. He is passed there yesterday evening.

A marriago license was issued in Washington vesterday, to R. W. Leache of Augusta county, Va., and Mary L. Armstead of Prince William county, Va.
